

INTERNATIONAL FOLK DANCE WORKSHOP FOR TEACHERS

Monday, July 23, 10:30 a.m. - 12 p.m.
Instrumental Rehearsal Hall, University Center for the Arts

Hosted by the Colorado Kodály Institute at Colorado State University

Sanna Longden is a well-known world dance educator who presents at Kodály, Orff, and other education conferences and chapters throughout North America and beyond. She has taught at universities, in-services, and folklore festivals, and serves as artist-in-residence in U.S. schools. Sanna's series of instructional DVDs and CDs is sold worldwide through Pearson, music ed catalogues, and on her website, SannaFolkStyle.com. She is co-author with Phyllis S. Weikart of Cultures and Styling in Folk Dance (High/Scope Press, 1998), with Wendy Taucher of Making Music with Movement and Dance (Pearson, 2006), and is a clinician and contributing author to the Silver Burdett Making Music program published by Pearson Education.

Fee: $20.00* payment by cash or check made out to Colorado State University
$15.00 for Alumni of the Colorado Kodály Institute

To register, contact:
carrienicholas@me.com

SCHOOL OF MUSIC,
THEATRE, AND DANCE
COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY