APPLICATION Requirements

The Graduate School and Music Department base admission on a variety of criteria.

To apply to the Graduate School, submit the online Graduate School application and all supporting documents by the appropriate date. Applications completed later than the published deadlines may be considered depending on space and resources available. Late applications that cannot be considered will be updated by the Office of Admissions to a later semester. The following items are required for your application:

- Official, sealed undergraduate transcripts
- a typed statement of career goals and specific reasons for applying to the CSU degree program (2-3 pages)
- a narrative essay that considers a current issue facing the field of music education in K-12 schools in the United States (ideally between 5-10 pages in length),
- a 35-45 minute Music Teaching video (please include a lesson plan or narrative description including lesson objectives and relevant contextual information)

Application to the M.M. in any music program is contingent upon admission to the Colorado State University Graduate School.

- A bachelor's degree or its equivalent, with a minimum average of 3.25 (A = 4.0). If your average is below 3.25, you may be considered for conditional admission if sufficient evidence indicates that you can perform well in a graduate program. Students with an undergraduate GPA of less than 3.0 seeking admission to any graduate degree program are required to submit additional information.

Applicants are encouraged to review the Graduate School's Admissions Requirements and Procedures available at: <http://graduateschool.colostate.edu/prospective-students/>
Note: Scores from the general exam of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) are not required for students seeking admission to any Music program.
